Dasara jumbos head back to jungle camps

Srirama throws tantrum for two hours; Abhimanyu gives him a mighty push

Mysuru, Oct. 7 (MTY&KS)- The Dasara elephants, which were the prime attraction in the Vijayadashami procession on Oct. 5 were given a warm and emotional send-off from the Palace premises this morning. They headed to their respective elephant camps and will continue doing the tasks assigned to them by the Forest Department, minus the nutritious food offered to them till now during the festival.

Traditional puja was performed to the elephants near Kodi Someshwara Temple in the Palace premises by the Forest Department and the process of boarding the elephants on trucks began. The trucks left at about 1.15 pm and the District Police escorted till their limits. People had gathered on the road sides and waved at the elephants, Mahouts and Kavadis. Many onlookers turned emotional when elephants raised their trunks as if they were waving back at them.

EDITOR'S BOTTOMLINE

The Kerala High Court very rightly described road accidents caused by potholes as man-made disasters. In Karnataka, the approach should move beyond being merely just compensation-based. It is imperative that officials are held responsible for the conditions of the victims. Despite the multiple deaths and injuries caused, we see there is no legislation that is explicitly or specifically dealing with the accountability for injuries or deaths caused because of potholes. Post complaint of a pothole, it is imperative that such potholes are filled within a stipulated time, failing which action should be taken and this should attract criminal liability.

Potholes have plagued the State for long, and it is time to put an end to these woes, by granting compensation while also holding those responsible accountable. A specific law to deal with cases of bad roads and potholes, and to prescribe accountability and monitoring mechanisms should be enacted to ensure that erring authorities and officials are held liable. The insufficiency of the existing provisions should provide an impetus for the same. — Sneha Priya Yanappa in Deccan Herald

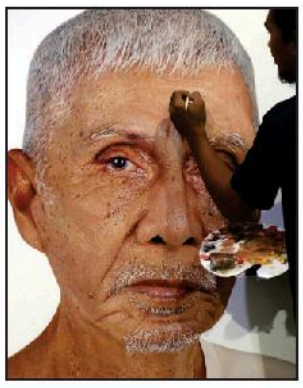
Artist paints hyper-realistic portraits



Manila: Emel Espiritu, a young, talented artist from the Philippines, has been drawing a lot of attention because of his hyper-realistic portraits which are almost indistinguishable from photographs.

As a young boy, Emel Espiritu loved to draw, so his father taught him the basics. However, as he grew up, his interest for drawing only grew, but his father didn't want him to pursue an artistic career and pushed him toward a more practical profession. Emel studied "fisheries" in college, but he never really got over his passion. He never stopped drawing. Instead, he honed his skills by watching YouTube tutorials and working odd jobs so he could afford painting supplies. Luckily, it all paid off, as the young artist is now famous for his ultra-realistic painted portraits.

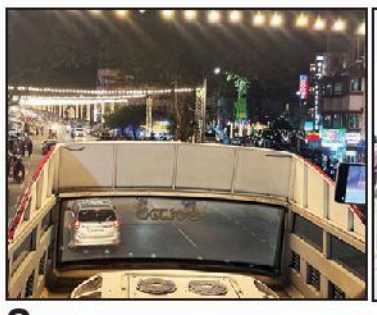
Modifications needed for Ambaari bus



Sir,

The travel by Ambaari bus enjoying Dasara illumination is definitely a very good experience. But there are a couple of defects in the bus, which requires immediate attention:

1. The first issue is while getting in and getting out of the bus — the first step to get in and get out of the bus is at more than two feet from the road level. This is causing lot of inconvenience to the passengers, especially ladies. This can be resolved by fixing an extra foldable step to the first step or by placing a wooden stool on road.

2. The front portion above the wind shield is at about two feet above the glass. This extended portion impedes the clear view of illumination while seated. To get a better view of illumination, passengers are constrained to stand up. While standing up, illumination and tree branches at a few locations are dangerously close to the passengers. This issue can be resolved by shortening the metal cladding above the wind shield as the Ambaari bus ride will continue to entertain tourists even after Dasara.

Govt. Hospitals in great demand among people in Mysuru District: DHO

MLA Nagendra inaugurates Health Care Centre for Senior Citizens at District Hospital

Mysuru, Oct.7 (MTY&TRR)- District Health Officer (DHO) Dr. K.H. Prasad said that during the last one year, the number of people who got treatment in Government Hospitals was more than those who availed treatment in Private Hospitals.

The DHO was speaking at a function jointly organised by the District Administration, Zilla Panchyat, District Health and Family Welfare Department, Department for Specially-Abled and Senior Citizens Empowerment as part of "World Senior Citizens Day and Medical Check-up Camp for Senior Citizens" held at the District Hospital premises on KRS road here recently.

"There is a general impression that Government Hospitals are not good. But in Mysuru District, Government Hospitals are offering very good health services and are successful in ensuring good health for the people. During the last one year, more than 47 lakh people have received treatment in various Government Hospitals of the District. Since the number of people who took treatment in Government Hospitals is more than those who took treatment in Private Hospitals, it is confirmed that the Government Hospitals are offering quality medical services," added Dr. Prasad.

Stating that in foreign countries more than 30 percent of the population live above 60 years, the DHO said that in India the number of people who die before the age of 60 is on the rise.

"Naturally, people suffer from various health issues after the age of 60. Besides treating 47 lakh people, we have performed more than 10,000 major surgeries and 30,000 normal surgeries," informed Dr. Prasad.

"As Government Hospitals are providing quality health treatment, we are getting NABH (National Accreditation Board for Hospitals & Healthcare Providers) Certificate. Every year about 40,000 baby deliveries are taking place in the District out of which 35,000 are in Government Hospitals," informed Dr. Prasad and asked people to avail timely treatment for various illnesses.

He concluded by saying that the Government is spending about Rs.13,000 crore to Rs. 15,000 crore every year and Government and Private Hospitals of Mysuru District have received Insurance Claims of Rs. 135 crore.

Earlier, the function was inaugurated by MLA L. Nagendra, who also inaugurated a Health Care Centre for Senior Citizens at the District Hospital.

Speaking on the occasion, the MLA said that the Government has taken up many steps in protecting the health of senior citizens. "All Government Hospitals have been given good facilities resulting in providing good medical care to the people of the District," he said.

"In this Health Care Centre, there are 30 beds and medical care is given to 30 patients. The Centre has separate sections for in-patients and for treating senior citizens. Based on the needs, there is also a facility to bring back the discharged patients on Government vehicle to the Hospital and give them treatment," explained MLA Nagendra.

District Surgeon Dr. Amarnath, Resident Medical Officer (RMO) Dr. Nayaz Pasha, Deputy Director of Department for the Empowerment of Differently Abled and Senior Citizens Malini, Dr. Pratibha Pereira, Professor and HoD of Geriatrics, JSS Hospital and others were present.

Dasara-2022: Old wine in new bottle

By N.K.A. Ballal,
Retd. Sr. Vice-President, ITDC

Ballal

The Dasara-2022 has come and gone. 62 troupes, 48 tableaux, over 1,500 artistes, a logistic nightmare. I should congratulate the District Administration for managing this event without a hitch as I am writing this article. Except for the lighting of the roads, the Food Festival, Flower Show and to some extent the vintage car rally which was commendable, did you notice anything different this year?

Of course, as usual all the officials and the netas will claim the grand success of this event. For them photos of the milling crowd is sufficient proof of the success of the event. This event is supposed to bring tourists both international and domestic back to Mysuru in droves. The event is over. Is it happening? The answer is a resounding "No."

How many opinion-makers visited Dasara this season? How many travel writers visited this Dasara season? How many CEOs of top-notch companies made beeline for Dasara? Hardly any. Mysuru has become a cheap destination.

Dasara is a lifeline for all the people living in the surrounding villages and small towns. So they all make this "Jatre" year after year irrespective of the money spent on the event. For any tourist destination to prosper, it is important to have at least 30 percent of visitors in high end category. This is missing at Mysuru. All high end tourists are giving it a miss and going to Coorg and Chikmagalur. International travel is down to a trickle.

I watch national news and financial news regularly. Surprised not a mention of the Mysuru Dasara but extensive coverage of Kolkata's Durga Puja regularly in all national TVs. Why? An absolute failure of the PR Department of the Department of Tourism. Extensive coverage in only Kannada channels is not going to bring in new tourists to Mysuru.

I do not blame the officials concerned. Dasara Sub-Committees were formed just 45 days back. What can one expect? As I had predicted, old files were dusted and the same old programmes were put in place. So much so, several artistes who had been announced for the events gave it a miss ! Yes, Mysuru was milling with crowds. But please ask the stakeholders of the tourism industry. Were the hotels full on all the days of Navarathri or only on last 3 days of Dasara?

Did the shopkeepers make money by way of increased sales or the crowds just did window shopping? The travel trade is furious. Why in spite of having a huge budget not a single advertisement by way of TV commercial was put up in any major metro cities? I do not blame the Tourism Department. They just do not have any 30 seconds TV footage. Had the Department commissioned any professional photographer to take photos of this event ?

Majority of the crowd on the last 3 days will be from Bengaluru and nearby towns around Mysuru. Why was the Tourism Minister absent on all the major days of the festival ? Where are the so-called foreign tourists ? The invitation card of the so-called Tourism Day festivity was full of politicians and not a single travel industry stalwart was invited. Why?

So many questions and no answers. I was told that about 300 foreign tourists were present for the event. Showing off yoga and University students as foreign tourists is an old ruse resorted by the officials to please the bosses. Why the gold cards were not printed on time? Gold cards were printed after the inauguration due to the hue and cry resorted to by the industry body.

During Dasara, at least some roads get repaired but this time with the arrival of the President of India, the same roads which had been repaired for PM Modi's trip was redone. So we have to wait for another VVIP to come to Mysuru to get some more roads asphalted!

I do have a complaint with the local travel associations too. Why have they not taken the initiative to invite top travel agents and travel writers and honour them on this occasion? Why depend on the Government for everything?

A peculiar trait was noticed at the Yuva Dasara this year. A section of the crowd continuously shouted "Kannada song haadi" to senior Hindi playback singers. Many a singers like Sonu Nigam obliged but others were embarrassed. New trend. Maybe Mysureans prefer local artistes who can belt out Kannada songs.

The only way this mess can be sorted out is by announcing a "Permanent Dasara Committee" with a few local well-informed citizens a part of it. The whole show can be conceptualised by January and executed perfectly with some new ideas and vision. The Prince in his silver chariot with about 200 men dressed up in the traditional attire with spears etc., should be a part of the procession. Heritage sells. Anyone listening?

Recently I was reading with interest a suggestion put forward by the industry body to start a direct train from Mysuru to Goa. Excellent idea. Goa gets about 100 charters every year who stay for 15 days in Goa. When I was heading the Ashok travel and tours in New Delhi, I had met several charted companies who suggested that after about 12 days on the beach several tourists get bored and some of them at least want to explore heritage city nearby for 3 days. Mysuru is the only city nearby Goa which can offer Palace, wildlife, temples etc., to foreign tourists at a single destination. So, if there is a daily train from Goa with "vistadome coaches" apart from a direct flight, this market can be tapped. Since the route passes through several famous temple towns, this can improve our domestic travel too. Our MP Pratap Simha, who has been responsible for several new initiatives, can consider this idea too.

BCCI is keen to develop a stadium in Mysuru. Even if two or three matches are held every year, tourism will bloom multi-fold. Since live telecast of every match is done to nearly all cricket loving countries, what is the hitch?

Devaraja Market, Lansdowne building, Town Hall... When will the administration take a decision either way. If they are looking for a consensus, it will never come. Vested interests.

What is the status of the Film City planned at Mysuru ? Unless the plan is finalised every Minister in Karnataka would try to take it away to their city. Why not invite Disney or Universal Studio for this project? The Chief Minister could have invited some industry czars like Adani, Ambani or Mittal for the Vijayadashami procession and honoured them. Imagine the PR coup.

Rural tourism, medical tourism, yoga tourism...the list is endless. You spend Rs. 35 crore instead of Rs. 25 crore. Does it make Dasara grander ? This charade has to end. Have we missed the bus this year too?

Dasara jumbos head back

In all, 14 elephants were brought to Mysuru in two batches. However, Lakshmi delivered a male calf, named Sri Dattatreya and the number of elephants went up to 15. It was for the first time in recent years that a Dasara elephant delivered a calf in the Palace premises during the festival.

Only nine elephants participated in the procession while the others took part in the regular rehearsals, except for Lakshmi and her calf. Other elephants were made to walk on the roads to make them familiar with Dasara and in the coming years, they will be included in the procession team after behavioural assessment and acclimatisation. The Department did not take the risk this time.

While the first batch of nine elephants comprising Howdah Elephant Abhimanyu, veteran Arjuna, Bheema, Mahendra, Gopalaswamy, Dhananjaya, Kaveri, Chaitra and Lakshmi arrived on Aug. 7 to Mysuru, the second batch of five elephants comprising Srirama, Parthasarathy, Gopi, Sugreeva and Vijaya were brought on Sept. 7.

At about 7.15 am today, Lakshmi and her son Sri Dattatreya along with Kumki elephant Chaitra left for Rampura Camp in a truck. Lakshmi was initially reluctant to board the truck but the Forest staff placed her son inside the truck and lured her inside.

Pachyderms reluctant

Elephants Srirama, Sugreeva and Parthasarathy refused to board the trucks to go back to their camps. While Sugreeva and Parthasarathy were lured into the trucks after about 30 minutes, Srirama refused to oblige and sat down on the ramp.

Though more than 20 Mahouts and Kavadis tried their best to make him climb the truck, Srirama refused for over two hours and did not budge even when Abhimanyu tried to push him inside. He was also poked with the Ankush (a sharp instrument used to guide elephants) but Srirama did not relent.

Later, huge iron chains were tied around him and Abhimanyu was made to drag him, but Srirama refused to move. Finally, after two hours, Abhimanyu gave a mighty push and made him board the truck.

Deputy Conservator of Forests (DCF) Dr. V. Karikalan told media persons that it was Srirama's sixth Dasara and he had not seen such a large number of people gathered to witness Jumboo Savari this year.

"All the elephants behaved well and did not panic to the booming sounds of cannons and also to the noise created by the large crowd. Even new elephants Bheema and Mahendra did not panic. Though it is the third time Abhimanyu is carrying the Golden Howdah, it is for the first time he carried it from the Mysore Palace to the Torchlight Parade Grounds at Bannimantap. In 2020 and 2021, Dasara was held inside the Palace due to COVID pandemic," the DCF said. Pointing out that Abhimanyu has all the qualities that a captain needs, Dr. Karikalan said that Abhimanyu also guided other elephants. All Mahouts, Kavadis, special Mahouts and elephant caretakers were given Rs. 10,000 each from the Mysore Palace Board.

Mysore Palace Board Deputy Director T.S. Subramanya, Conservator of Forests Dr. Malathi Priya, DCF Kamala K. Karikalan, Range Forest Officer (RFO) Santosh Hoogar, Veterinarian Dr. Mujeeb and others were present.

15 lakh witnessed Jumboo Savari, claims Minister

District Minister S.T. Somashekar addressing a press meet at a Convention Hall in J.P. Nagar yesterday as MP Pratap Simha, City Police Commissioner Dr. Chandragupta, Deputy Commissioner Dr. Bagadi Gautham, SP R. Chetan and District BJP President Mangala Somashekar look on.

Mysuru, Oct. 7 (RK & DM)- Though there are no parameters to assess the number of people who watched the Jumboo Savari on the Vijayadashami Day from the Mysore Palace to Bannimantap, District Minister S.T. Somashekar has claimed that over 15 lakh people were physically present along the route, cheering the grand spectacle.

Addressing a press conference-cum-luncheon for media at a Convention Hall in J.P. Nagar yesterday, the Minister said that except for minor glitches, Dasara-2022 that began with the inauguration by President of India Droupadi Murmu atop Chamundi Hill on Sept. 26, was a tremendous success.

Happy over the successful conduct of the ten-day festivities that culminated with the procession on Wednesday, Somashekar thanked the public, elected representatives, officials, journalists, Police and all other stakeholders for the smooth conduct.

Pointing out that this year's Dasara, which was held on a grand scale after two years of COVID pandemic, was more glittering and spectacular, with the illumination of a total of 124 kms of roads, 96 prominent circles and junctions of the city and lighting of 28 personalities, figures and representations, Somashekar said that following a direction from the Chief Minister, the illumination will be extended by a few more days.

Noting that 'Appu Namana' in memory of late actor Puneeth Rajkumar has received widespread appreciation, the Minister said that the Dasara Flower Show, in which over 50,000 varieties of flowers were on display, had been a huge hit.

Highlighting that other Dasara events such as cultural programmes at Mysore Palace premises and nine other venues, Raitha Dasara, Mahila Mattu Makkala Dasara, Yuva Dasara, Kavighosti, Ahara Mela etc., too witnessed tremendous public response, Somashekar said that the Dasara expenditure accounts will be made public soon. He said that like last year, Nalwadi Krishnaraja Wadiyar Award was conferred upon ten achievers from different fields. The awardees were chosen by a panel, he added.

He further said that Kaigarika Dasara and a Medical Expo at MMC&RI were organised for the first time. Lauding the work of Pourakarmikas, he said that they carried out cleaning works across the city from 11 pm till early morning on Thursday, after Jumboo Savari concluded late on Wednesday.

Minister Somashekar was felicitated on the occasion. MLA L. Nagendra, Mayor Shivakumar, ZP CEO B.R. Poornima, MCC Commissioner G. Lakshmikantha Reddy, Addl. DC Dr. B.S. Manjunathaswamy, City BJP President T.S. Srivatsa and others were present.

DC thanks officers, public for Dasara success

Mysuru, Oct. 7 (GA & BCT)- Deputy Commissioner Dr. Bagadi Gautham has thanked all the officers and people of Mysuru for the successful conduct of Dasara that was held on a grand scale after two years of subdued celebrations.

Speaking to Star of Mysore last evening, the DC said that it was the second Dasara for him as DC. "It was a challenging feat as this time President of India Droupadi Murmu inaugurated the festival. All eyes were on Mysuru as it was the President's first State visit after she assumed office. But thanks to the co-operation extended by officers, elected representatives and all the other stakeholders, the President's visit was a smooth affair," he said.

"Whenever a decision is taken at the high level, it is the team of officers that implement the same without any lapses. This year, the co-operation, coordination and consultations were good and as such the Dasara was a grand success," the DC said.

When asked about the idea-exchange with his wife C. Aswathi, who is the Mandya Deputy Commissioner on Dasara conduct, he said, "She was busy in organising Srirangapatna Dasara while I was staying in Mysuru. We used to meet only once a week but interacted with each other regarding preparations and things needed for a smooth festival."

Mysuru Travels Association (MTA) President C.A. Jayakumar told Star of Mysore this morning that the tourist footfall has given a big boost to travel, tourism, hospitality sectors along with other allied businesses. "The footfall is encouraging and enables us to plan better for next Dasara and has increased our confidence manifold after two years of devastation," he said.

"People want to go out and enjoy after two years of restrictions and this has played a major role in this Dasara. The State Government has raked in revenue in crores without much effort, thanks to the social media-driven publicity. But we must seriously think in the direction of bettering existing facilities for continuous revenue," he said.

High entry tax

This Dasara turnout was indeed one of the largest in recent years. "On the one hand, we are inviting tourists from across the country and abroad and at the same time, we are imposing exorbitant entry tax for outside State vehicles. A tourist bus from outside Karnataka has to pay an entry tax of Rs. 40,000. How is it fair? We must encourage tourists and not stop them at the gate, dissuading them from coming here," he said.

The tourism sector is booming without anyone's intervention because people want to travel and explore. "It is high time we streamlined things like the Government has to constitute the long-pending Dasara Authority. The inter-State toll is a discouraging factor. If the Government reduces it by Rs. 10,000 or even Rs. 15,000, we can have more number of vehicles entering Mysuru and further boost the local economy. This will in turn benefit the State immensely," he added.

Zoo visitors

In the last 10 days, Mysuru Zoo received more than 1.55 lakh visitors, raking in gate-collection of Rs. 1.53 crore. On the day of Ayudha Puja, 23,350 tourists visited the Zoo and on Vijayadashami Day, 36,420 tourists entered the premises. On these two days, the gate revenue was Rs. 59.08 lakh.

According to a press release from the Zoo Executive Director Ajit M. Kulkarni, the collection made on Vijayadashami was a four-year high and this is the second-highest collection in the past four years after the 2019 collection of Rs. 1.59 crore.

On Vijayadashami, the gate collection was Rs. 35.92 lakh. In 2019, it was nearly Rs. 28.28 lakh. The number of visitors this year was 36,420 while 28,386 people visited in 2019. While 23,350 tourists visited the Zoo for this Ayudha Puja generating a gate collection of Rs. 23.16 lakh, in 2019, 30,273 people visited the Zoo, raking in a revenue of Rs. 29.77 lakh.

Palace visitor data

A huge number of tourists also visited Mysore Palace during Dasara. According to data from Mysore Palace Board, as many as 98,142 tourists visited the Palace from Sept 26 to Oct. 4. The Palace was closed for visitors on Oct. 5. On Oct. 2, the highest number of 21,062 tourists visited the iconic structure.

According to Palace Board Deputy Director T.S. Subramanya, among the tourists, there were 309 foreigners, 7,335 students, 11,702 children and 78,796 adults. Of the number of visitors from Sept. 26, 67,299 visitors came to see the Palace in the last four days, he added.

Yuva Dasara watched online by 21 lakh people in six days

- Sonu Nigam concert 4.7 lakh; Appu Namana 3.5 lakh; Sunidhi Chauhan 3.5 lakh
- Vijayadashami procession, Torchlight Parade had 6.5 lakh digital viewership

Mysuru, Oct. 7 (RK&BCT)- The digital medium used by the Mysuru District Administration to publicise and live-stream Dasara events have brought in rich dividends and the 10-day spectacle has reached lakhs of viewers. Despite initial glitches in the website with many bloomers, the digital medium has proved to be a hit.

As tourists, mainly those coming from abroad, depend on the information presented on websites, it was decided to redesign the website to make it more informative, interactive and responsive with a lot of information about Mysuru, Dasara, history of the land and other paraphernalia. Also, live-streaming links were introduced for the digital audience to view high-quality content.

Overall, 21 lakh people have viewed Yuva Dasara programmes through Facebook and over 8 lakh viewed the cultural programmes that were live-streamed. Notably, this year, Yuva Dasara was held for six days with a delay of two days. The grand finale (Vijayadashami procession and Torchlight Parade) was viewed by over 6.5 lakh people.

There were overall 6.23 lakh visitors to the Dasara website and over 7.8 lakh people viewed the programmes through YouTube. Among the popular Yuva Dasara programmes that were viewed online were Appu Namana that had a viewership of 3.5 lakh people and Sunidhi Chauhan concert had a viewership of 3.5 lakh. The Sonu Nigam concert has proved the most popular event with 4.7 lakh online viewers.

While Assistant Director of the Department of Information and Public Relations T.K. Harish led the overall website development and live-streaming team, the technical expertise was provided by Fusionminds Technologies.

A lot of resource planning, associations for immediate requirements, server commissioning, payouts, team planning, work stations, multi-location team coordination and media-facing for live stream had to be initiated for the website and the live-streaming to work on different social media platforms.

The team, under the leadership of Yashwanth Kumar, Srishesh Aravind Prabhu and K.M. Karthik ensured that there were no breaks or buffering in the live-streaming and efforts were made to enhance the overall viewing experience of the user.

"We just had 2 mbps speed atop the Chamundi Hill and it was impossible to live telecast India's President Droupadi Murmu's inauguration and the events associated with it. We tied up with GNet and they provided us with a blazing fast bandwidth of 150 mbps," Srishesh told Star of Mysore.

The team was efficiently assisted with technical support by Archik Technologies in web development, deployment, load balancing, OTT live-streaming which were crucial in reaching the end customers. "While it takes over two months for live stream server setup, we could do it in just about 2 weeks taking up to 200 percent server load gracefully," he added.

Other teams too have contributed to the success of the website and live streaming. They include design team, content team, digital and social media and marketing team, web developers, software architects, quality and testing, project coordinators, mixing jockeys, streaming and jib operators and camera and field coverage teams.

Mysuru Dasara is spectacular: PM Modi

I commend the people of Mysuru for preserving their culture and heritage so beautifully. I have fond memories of my Mysuru visits, the most recent one being during 2022 Yoga Day."

WORD OF THE DAY

Haywire

Pronunciation: HAY-wyre.
Meaning: Haywire means "being out of order or having gone wrong" or "emotionally or mentally upset or out of control." It is often used in the phrase "go haywire."
Origin: The noun haywire refers to a type of wire once used in baling hay and sometimes for makeshift repairs. This hurried and temporary use of haywire gave rise to the adjective (and sometimes adverb) haywire. When the adjective was first used in the early 20th century, it was primarily found in the phrase "haywire outfit," which originally denoted a poorly equipped group of loggers, and then anything that was flimsy or patched together. This led to a "hastily patched-up" sense, which in turn gave us the now-common meaning, "being out of order or having gone wrong." The "crazy" sense of haywire may have been suggested by the tendency of the relatively weak and rust-prone wire to fail at inopportune times, or to get tangled around legs, or possibly to the disorderly appearance of the temporary repair jobs for which it was used.
Example: "Something, I suspect, is going haywire in the frying process, an interaction that leads to those off-putting aromas. Is the oil not hot enough, thereby clinging to the [French toast] sticks and leaving behind the flavors of whatever was fried in it previously? Were they fried too long?" — Tim Carman

THE ODD WORD

Hansom

Light two-wheeled cab.

PHRASE OF THE DAY

Hard as a rock

Meaning: The phrase 'Hard as a Rock' means very hard.
Origin: Rocks and stones are among the hardest surfaces known to mankind, and though items described by the idiom 'hard as a rock' might not literally be as hard as a rock, they're typically much harder than the user would like them to be. No one is certain when this term was first used to figuratively describe something, but what is certain is that it's an idiom that's not difficult to understand.
Example: "This cake is as hard as a rock!"

QUOTE BOX

Stand up like a mountain; have faith like a rock; love like an avalanche.

— Bob Goff
